

HIGH-SCORING UNIVERSAL ESSAY TEMPLATE

Students may use this template in the exam.

Introduction

The issue of [rephrase the question] has attracted considerable attention in contemporary society. While some contend that [side A], others maintain that [side B]. This essay will [discuss advantages and disadvantages / examine problems and propose solutions / evaluate both perspectives] before asserting that [your stance].

Body Paragraph 1

To commence, a principal reason [first requirement of the task] is that [explanation]. For instance, [insert example]. Moreover, [second supporting point], which further substantiates the argument. Collectively, these considerations underscore that [link back to thesis].

Body Paragraph 2

Conversely, [second requirement of the task]. This can be attributed to [explanation]. For example, [insert example]. Furthermore, [second supporting point]. Consequently, it is apparent that [connect to thesis].

Score Big. Stress Less.

Conclusion

In conclusion, although [acknowledge opposing side], the preponderance of evidence indicates that [your final stance]. Therefore, it is reasonable to conclude that [restate thesis].